65,000 DELTA WOMEN MAKE DEMANDS ON CORPORATE COMMUNITY

The Hon. Benjamin Hooks, FCC Commissioner, Center, was the guest speaker at on e of the Delta luncheons during which Mrs. Coretta King, R., was presented half of a five thousand dollar fellowship to the Martin Luther King Jr. Center for change from Delta Sigma Theta presented by Nat'l President, Lillian P.Benbow.

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- SEPT. 6, -- "We are making demands on the Corporate Community, the controlling community to give us our space," stated Mrs. Lillian P. Benbow, National President of Delta Sigma Theta, Inc. in her first message to the more than 65,000 members of this public service organization following their 32nd National Convention held last month in Atlanta, Georgia where a record number of 5,000 delegates attended.

"And we are adequate to filling it," she continued. She went on to explain that the organization is in the process of establishing a computerized data resource bank of Delta women which it is making available to private corporations and governmental agencies. A parallel capability is being established which identifies those corporations which are uncooperative and discriminatory in their employment practices.

Mrs. Benbow, speaking through the Delta newsletter, a monthly publication of the organization added, "We shall withdraw the membership's buying power, individually and collectively from those entities. That is a capability we have and we shall use it! This is not a campaign to be waged during some specified and limited period; this is simply a matter of policy for Delta membership. We can no longer justify spending our money with those who would deny us access to the means by which to obtain buying power. And this is not a means by which we're trying to change the system--this represents creating a system--there is presently no system for the poor--there is no system for Blacks, for Indians, for Latinos. We're talking about creating a system wherein Black people and other minorities can operate and exert influence within it. We shall demand that Delta Sigma Theta, comprised of professionally trained women, be notified of job openings for dissemination to its membership. And once securo ing those jobs, the membership shall hold itself accountable to affecting changes supportive of non-professional Blacks. Just as we shall bring sanctions against the corporate marketplace, se must we be prepared to take ourselves to task if we forget our ultimate aim--the elimination of economic deprivation of our people. We are the catalysts, the conduits. Seeing a

We Congratulate the TACOMA NEWS TRIBUNE on its new ultra-modern home. As we walked through the building Sunday, I could not help wondering how the founder would feel were he alive today, seeing the fruits of his many sleepless nights come true; whereas not only his family should be proud but all of Tacoma. Dear Tac-Vac

by: Ted Jefferson

Dear TAC VAC:

Q--My brother is a disabled Vietnam veteran. VA has authorized vocational rehabilitation and he will begin college in the fall. Doesn't the VA pay for textbooks he needs? Will that include books on a recommended reading list he has received? What else may be included?

A--VA will supply the books and supplies a veteran needs for his rehabilitation pro gram. This is normally done through the school. The veteran will be issued the same supplies and books other students in the course are ordinarily required to have. Generally, any books on a recommended reading list are not supplied. In addition to texts, the veteran is entitled to incidential supplies, such as notebooks, typing paper, and and inexpensive pen.

Q-- I am a Vietnam veteran and plan to use my GI Bill rights for college enrollment. However, I am also very much in the running for a scholarship financed by government funds. Does the GI Bill have any prohabition against a veteran getting dual benefits?

A--The VA is barred from payment of educational assistance in cases of persons on active duty duty with the armed forces or Public Health Service whose education or training costs are being paid by the federal government. The bar also applies to persons receiving education or training under the Government Employees' Training Act and being paid their full salary during that period. Otherwise there is no dual payment restriction

Q--When the VA takes over operation of the national cemeteries, will the eligibility requirements for burial be changed? Isn't there going to be a higher burial allowance paid by VA?

A--Eligibility for burial in national cemeteries remains the same after the transfer of functions Sept 1, 1973. The $250 VA burial allowance has not been increased. However, Public Law 43, 93rd Congress, provides for a plot or interment allowance of $150 for an eligible veteran who is not buried in a national cemetery or other federal cemetery, and a burial allowance of up to $800, in lieu of any other burial benefits, for veterans who die of service connected disabilities.

How to save money on your Long Distance calls.

1. Dial direct whenever you can.
When you dial interstate calls direct from your home or office phone without operator assistance, you can almost always save. For representative rates and details on when dial-direct rates are applicable, see the rate chart below.

2. Call at the times when rates are lowest.
Interstate Long Distance rates—especially dial-direct rates—are lower on weekends, in the evening and late at night. Savings can be big, as you can see from the rate chart.

3. Plan your conversation in advance.
If you know in advance what you wish to talk about—perhaps even make some notes—you'll be able to share more news and get more accomplished in less time. And this will save money.

4. Call person-to-person only when absolutely necessary.
Person-to-person calls are far more expensive than station-to-station calls—especially dial-direct station calls. In some cases, as indicated in the rate chart, you can get more than two dial-direct calls for the price of one person-to-person call.

Coast to Coast Long Distance rates

		Station-to-Station Dial-it-Yourself	Station-to-Station Operator-Assisted	Person-to-Person
Weekends	8 a.m. to 11 p.m. Sat and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sun.	70c first 3 minutes	$1.40 first 3 minutes	$3.55 first 3 minutes
Evenings	5 p.m. to 11 p.m. Sun. through Fri.	85c first 3 minutes	$1.40 first 3 minutes	$3.55 first 3 minutes
Nights	11 p.m. to 8 a.m. daily	35c* first minute (minimum call)	$1.40 minimum call (3 minutes)	$3.55 minimum call (3 minutes)
Weekdays	8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mon. through Fri.	$1.45 first 3 minutes	$1.85 first 3 minutes	$3.55 first 3 minutes

Rates shown (tax is not included) are for the days, hours and durations indicated, and for the types of calls specified at the head of the columns. Rates may be even less, of course, on out-of-state calls for shorter distances.
These dial-it-yourself rates apply on all coast-to-coast interstate calls completed from any non-coin telephone without operator assistance or from any non-coin phone where direct dialing facilities are not available. Dial direct rates do not apply to person-to-person, coin, hotel/motel guest, credit-card, collect or to calls charged to another number, because an operator must assist on such calls.
*One minute minimum calls available only at the times shown, and additional minutes are 20c each, coast to coast.

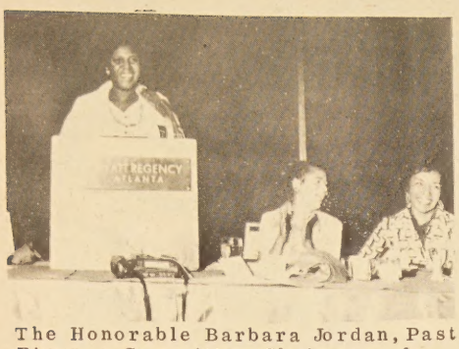
DELTA WOMEN



The Honorable Barbara Jordan, Past Finance Committee Chairman of Delta Sigma Theta addressed one of the luncheons whose overflow crowd had to view her on video tape.

'light at the end of the tunnel' is not enough--we must shorten the tunnel! And so we are beginning our count down--counting the number of Deltas securing jobs as a result of the Career Development Institute and then how many break throughs Deltas secure for less trained brothers and sisters."

Among the keynote and guest speakers at the Convention were the Hon. Barbara Jordan, (D., Texas) who is a Delta; the Hon. Frankie M. Freeman, U.S. Civil Rights Commissioner who is the Immediate Past Nat'l. President of Delta; the Hon. Benjamin Hooks, FCC Commissioner; the Hon. Julian Bond, Georgia state legislature; the Hon. Maynard Jackson, Vice Mayor of Atlanta; Mrs. Coretta King, President, Martin Luther King, Jr. Foundation and a host of other distinguished persons who participated on panels and in workshops. Mrs. LaDonna Harris, for her contributions in the area of human rights, received Delta's highest award, The Mary Church Terrell Award and four nationally prominent women were inducted into Honorary Membership--Miss Ruby Dee, actress; Miss Nikki Giovanni, poet; Miss Ethel Payne, journalist-commentator and Miss Unita Blackwell, civil rights worker in Mississippi.

"Delta Women--Breaking New Ground" was the theme of the convention as the members celebrated sixty years of public service. However, the program which has resulted from the Convention indicates that the "new ground" which Delta women are determined to break will reverberate throughout the nation and impact positively on the lives of Blacks and other poor people in general and minority women in particular.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Human Relations Commission of the City of Tacoma will hold its regular business meeting on Thursday, 20 September 1973 at 4:30 pm

The meeting will be held at 955 Tacoma Avenue South , Suite 304.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

NEVER UNDERESTIMATE the power of words. In 1896 an obscure congressman from Nebraska attended the Democratic National Convention as an alternate delegate. He was only 36 years old. Yet he made a speech which was so powerful that the convention ended by nominating him as its candidate for President of the United States. The man was William Jennings Bryan.

HOLLAND

The windmills, the wooden shoes and the colorful native costumes in old-time villages continue to attract thousands of American visitors to the Netherlands, the crisp, clean and hospitable land of tulips and canals.

The Netherlands is a flat country with plenty of lakes, rivers, canals and, of course, the Zuider Zee. Its charm and beauty are rewarding to the person who spends more than a couple of days seeing the highlights.

The Dutch speak English with determination, which means that most Americans will feel very much at home. The southeastern part of the country is made up of beautiful rolling hills dotted with castles.

Since canals are the main thoroughfares in Holland, don't miss taking a trip through Amsterdam in one of the glass-topped motor launches. The boats go through all the important canals, as well as many smaller ones. Amsterdam combines the old and the new.

Rotterdam's harbor is actually the world's busiest seaport. Miles of wharves and warehouses have been built to handle the transfer of ocean freight to canal barges destined for the industrial centers of Holland, Germany, and Belgium.

Ship building is the city's leading industry. Other important manufactures include sugar, cigars, margarine, paints, rope, furniture and leather goods.

The largest, most modern hotel in the city is conveniently located in the heart of the shopping and business section and is only three minutes from the railroad station. The Rotterdam Hilton, which boasts one of the city's most popular nightsports, also, has excellent convention facilities including a ballroom that can seat over 500 people. The elegant Cote de Boeuf restaurant of the Rotterdam Hilton specializes in American style steaks and chops and Dutch seafood. The informal Coffee House serves snacks round-the - clock. You can savor cocktails in the 18th century setting of the Jan Steen Bar, or join the lively crowd in Le Bateau--swingingest discotheque in town.

Also delighting the eye and the spirit are Rotterdam's brilliant flower markets, craftsmen fashioning objects of pewter, diamonds and Dutch sweets.

YOUNG GIRL CAPTURES RAPIST
While waiting for a bus, a young attractive girl was grabbed from behind and dragged into an alley. As her assailant tried to rip her dress off, she fired one burst at his face. Instantly he let her go and staggered around blindly, coughing and gasping. He later confessed to raping over a dozen women in the area. This girl and possibly others were saved from a vicious sexual attack.

MODEL CITIES NEWS

NDP Needs Homes to Fix

The Neighborhood Development Program (NDP) has money to rehabilitate homes in the NDP area, but they need more homes to fix.

If you live in the six block area between Sheridan and L Streets and between So. 19th and 25th Streets, you may be eligible for a home improvement grant or loan. You can find out if you are eligible by calling 593-4878 or 593-4240 or by dropping into the office at 2110 So. L Street.

The grants do not have to be repaid. They are available to people in the area who live in their own homes with a maximum of $3,500 available.

Low interest loans (at 3% interest) are available for any structure in the NDP area whether it is a home, apartment, or business and whether it is occupied by the owner or some other person.

Some home owners will be given both a grant and a loan. Others will be assisted in finding new homes by the Urban Renewal Department if the present home is beyond repair.

Work in the NDP is continuing with one home completed and several others at different stages. Future loans will come through the Model Cities public housing corporation which is being formed now. The transition could delay some projects, but not for any length of time.

Bids for repairs on sewers, alley paving, sidewalk repair, and storm drains have been received twice, but both bids were over the estimate. The Project Area Committee (PAC) was expected to meet tonight to discuss the problem.

Hilltop to Vote on Sept. 27

There is till time to register for the Advisory Association and vote in Thursday's Model Cities Executive Board elections.

In spite of recent rumors, anyone voting in the Sept. 27 election must be a member of the Advisory Association. Registration for the association will end on Tuesday. Call 593-4660 and ask for the citizens participation component or come into the office at 622 Tacoma Ave. to register.

Eight people are running for the six board vacancies. The six Model Neighborhood residents running are Madeline House, James C. Nash, Louis Scott, Doris Shaw, Nora L. Walker, and Joan Waller. Mrs. House and Mrs. Waller are running for reelection to the positions. Two non-resident candidates are Janabea Wilson and Johnnie Whitfield.

Advisory Association members will be able to vote in two places, at McCarver Elementary School and at the County-City Building Second Floor Lobby. The polls will be open from 11 am to 7:30 pm.

Absentee ballots for the election are still available by calling 593-4660. Ask for the citizens participation component. Cut-off for requesting absentee ballots and for registering for the Advisory Association is Sept. 25.

Results of the election are to be announced at the Annual Advisory Association meeting on Sept. 27. The meeting will be held in conjunction with the regular Executive Board meeting at 7:30 in the City Council Chambers on the third floor of the County-City Building.

Housing Program Getting Oriented

Most of the staff of the Housing Development Program will begin work on Monday with a week long orientation session.

The session will include an introduction to the Model Cities program and a briefing on the objectives of the Housing Development Program. The newly formed Public Housing Corporation is expected to meet soon for an organizational meeting.

After the orientation period and after the public corporation has set its procedures, work will begin on the housing applications that have been processed. Anyone who has a question about housing rehabilitation should call the housing component of Model Cities at 593-4660.

Board Approves Interim Contract

The Model Cities Executive Board approved an extension of the Housing Development Program interim contract.

The board gave Director Keith Palmquist the authority to extend the temporary contract up to 60 days or until a permanent contract can be signed. This will carry the program through the organizational period.

Palmquist informed the Board that most of the contracts for the Final Action Year will be on the City Council agenda of Sept. 25. Twelve contracts will be considered.

Palmquist also told the board that a $29,997 grant from Law Enforcement Assistance Act funds had been approved by the State for a Group Home for Boys. The project has been delayed awaiting approval of the State grant.

Board Candidates Talk to Task Force

Two candidates for the Executive Board gave short talks at the Mass Task Force on Monday.

Doris Shaw said that she hoped that the community could work together and that she wanted to be involved with the people in the community.

Janabea Wilson told the Task Force that she wanted to see more information given to the members and to the community. She said she was especially concerned about housing problems.

Johnnie Whitfield sent a statement which was read at the meeting. He said that he was concerned about the future of the Model Neighborhood and of Tacoma.

The Law and Justice-Social Services-Health Task Force reported that iw ill hold a series of training sessions in October. The first two sessions will be on narcotics and first aid. Another session is being planned of legal assistance.

The Education-Youth-Culture and Recreation Task Force recently met with the new director of the Malcolm X Youth Center. The task force is still encouraging citizens to become involved in the Concerned Parents Group.

Housing-Manpower reported that seven applications for housing grants were approved at the last meeting.

The Mass Task Force concluded with another training session conducted by Jim Simms.
